SECOND GRADE LIFE

Mrs. R is our teacher; she keeps us busy as bees.

But we love to learn and we try very hard to please.

Math, reading, writing, and cursive are what I like best.

I love getting stickers when I take an AR test.

We have lunch, recess; we play on the slides and swings too.

We have art, music, and PE; there's so much to do.

Soon our schoolwork is done and our school day has ended.

So goodbye everyone; I'm so glad we attended!

My Cousin Hannah

I just woke up,
The phone rang,
I answered it,
It was my aunt
She said Hannah just died,
This is the worst day ever! I yelled into the phone.
This is the end of my life. I thought
I will never leave my room ever again.
Tears ran down my face like a shotgun hitting my heart,
BOOM!BOOM!BOOM!
I was so sad,
I wouldn't stop crying for hours,
The funeral was really hard,
I cried and cried as her casket went down the aisle,
About a year after her death we went down to her grave,
I read a poem saying how wonderful she was,
When I look at her picture there's a little hole inside me that can never be replaced by anyone or anything,
I see her in the clouds everyday,
I wish she never left us,
I wish she never left me,
I will never forget her no matter what happens to me or anyone.
I love you Hannah.

Where Does the Wind Go?

Where does it go
When it glides by my red brick house
As soft as a whisper?

Where does it go
When it plays hide and seek with me
And I always think I'll find it
Around every corner,
But then when I look
It's never there

And it always seems to Disappear before I can catch it?

Where does it go
When it glides through
My soft blonde hair
And tickles my hair
It feels like a million butterflies
Just zoomed through my hair?

Where does it go
